

~~SECRET~~

Approved For Release 2002/08/12 : CIA-RDP79R00890A001100110020-1

NSC BRIEFING

4 November 1959

PANAMA

- I. Further violence may follow in wake of Tuesday's rioting.
 - A. Injury of several Panamanian demonstrators by US troops may be used as excuse for new anti-US riots.
 - B. National Guard did not attempt to halt demonstrations.
 - C. CZ governor called US army to expel demonstrators from Zone.
- II. This one of worst anti-US outbreaks in Panamanian history.
 - A. Presence of Communist agitators reported but not confirmed.
 - B. Radio Moscow reported riots and cited examples of how Canal Company has "exploited" Panama.
- III. Demonstration leader Aquilino Boyd seeks to exploit anti-US sentiment for his own political advantage.
 - A. Boyd, an ex-foreign minister, is a candidate for president in May 1960 election.
 - B. In July he called for peaceful occupation of Zone on 3 Nov.
 - C. He is advocate, along with university professor Ernesto Castillero, of 50-50 split in Canal revenues.
- IV. Government may use Canal Zone issues to divert criticism of its economic and social policies.
 - A. Lack of prompt action by administration likely due to political unpopularity of defending US interests.
 - B. Pre-election promises of all parties stress determination to fight for additional Canal benefits.
 - C. Foreign Minister made three important speeches in last three months accusing US of failure to comply with 1955 treaty.
 - D. Attacks on US Canal Zone policies will intensify as May 1960 elections approach.

Approved For Release 2002/08/12 : CIA-RDP79R00890A001100110020-1

~~SECRET~~

25X1

6

CLASSIFIED
DECLASSIFIED
CLASS. CHANGED TO: TS S C
NEXT REVIEW DATE:
AUTH: HR 70-2
DATE: 12-21-78
REVIEWER: